

The Robert Louis Stevenson/Edinburgh Napier University Creative Writing Competition for Senior School Pupils 2011

Submission Form for Candidates

Entries must be submitted, typed, on single-sided sheets of A4, in, for preference, 12-14pt Arial or Times New Roman. Prose entries should be no longer than 1500 words and poetry submissions no longer than a single side of A4. No submissions may be made by e-mail. In addition all candidates must submit their entries to the competition under a single word pseudonym. Their own names must not appear on their entries.

An additional sheet should be included outlining in a paragraph what aspect of Robert Louis Stevenson's life or work has inspired the writing.

Full Name.....

School Address

.....

Title of Entry

.....

Genre (poetry, fiction, reflective)

Writing in Scots?.....

Pseudonym

Disclaimer:

I confirm that this entry is my own unaided work.

Signature Date

Confirmation by English teacher:

I confirm that so far as I am aware this entry is the candidate's own unaided work.

Name

Signature Date

Return to:

By: